

VALENTINE'S DAY LOVE SIGNS FEBRUARY 14, 2010 by Eugenia Last

What type of lover are you?

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You're the last of the red-hot lovers: strong, passionate and extremely loyal unless, of course, you lose interest. You have a powerful sex drive and are mainly interested in conquest. You're aggressive, domineering, restless, impulsive, imaginative and dynamic when it comes to the sexual arena. You are a doer, however, you are never exactly sure what you'll do next. Your "who cares" attitude attracts potential mates and, once aroused, you are playful, vibrant and fearless.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You have deep and stable emotions. Your sex drive is strong and powerful. You look for a loyal and long-lasting relationship. You demand comfort and luxury. You don't like to pursue a potential lover; that's a game you won't play. You are down-to-earth, physical and sensual, a real connoisseur of food, drink and entertainment. You are complex and instinctively knowledgeable in the art of seduction. You know exactly what you want and will settle for nothing less.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) You are attracted to intellect. If your lover can't dance with your mind, then he or she certainly doesn't stand a chance of dancing with your body. You're always on the move -- you dislike routine in any aspect of your life. You are a smooth talker and can lure any lover you want with your suggestive words and innuendoes. You are continually searching for something new and will move on if a relationship becomes boring. Your witty and provocative ways attract a lot of interest. You're easy to approach but not easy to hang on to. You will only remain in a relationship that offers experience, versatility and wisdom.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) Emotional, sentimental, protective and romantic, you hate change and are reluctant to let go of anyone you become attached to. You tend to be sulky in a sensual way that helps you get what you want. You can be extremely possessive when it comes to relationships. You love good-looking lovers and are prone to treating your mate like an object -- very adoring but with a little smothering. You must be handled with tender loving care. You prefer lovers who aren't too aggressive. Emotional security is a necessity in order for you to be happy.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You are powerful, sustained and warm-hearted. Companionship and affection are a must in your life. You are an ardent lover and will put on a tremendous show if you want to impress a particular partner. You are always in pursuit of someone who will complement your presence but not steal your thunder. You need to be admired and desired. You are a demanding lover who expects your mate to bend to your needs. If you don't get what you want, you are likely to look elsewhere. However, for the partner who pleases you, there is nothing you won't do to pamper and entertain.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You have a practical approach to love. Most importantly, you have to feel that your lover is an asset. If he or she passes the test, you will do everything on earth to make the relationship work. You have a great curiosity about love. Sex is an experience that shouldn't be overlooked, in your mind. You will only commit to your lover if you feel that the relationship will last forever. You have high standards about what you want from your companion. You enjoy the sexual entanglements but you are not likely to settle for anything less than the perfect mate.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) You are conscious of visual appearance and totally attracted to well-kept, good looks. You are easily turned off if someone doesn't meet your standards. You are a wonderful lover and will make bedtime a rewarding experience for the mate who catches your eye. You are always bound and determined to satisfy when it comes to making love. You are an expert at luring anyone who interests you. You are known for your grace and refinement. You love to be admired and any mate who obliges you can expect to see just how skilled you can be when it comes to making love.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) You are powerful and emotionally intense when it comes to love. When you decide you want someone, you won't take no for an answer. You are capable of attaining the highest level of passion. You are persuasive and controlling when it comes to the art of seduction. To you, sex is a game and you play for keeps. You have no trouble attracting a mate with your mesmerizing gaze. You are seductive to the point of being hypnotic. You have high expectations when it comes to physical engagements and you can be extremely demanding, not to mention full of surprises, in the sexual arena.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You tend to be hot and cold emotionally. Although you possess extreme exuberance when aroused, your passion is not sustained for very long unless your lover can provide you with the adventure and excitement you require. You are a born bachelor, a free-spirited, fun-loving individual who will show your partner a great time and win his or her heart just by being your lovable self. You rarely get upset when a lover decides to move on. You love life and resent any mate who tries to curtail your freedom. When backed into an emotional corner, you run.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You may appear to be phlegmatic but, in reality, you are capable of deep fidelity if you respect your lover. You have a strong sex drive that must be satisfied and you will be persistent in order to get your way. Your animal tendencies always come out in the bedroom. You are a lustful, energetic lover who prefers to play the role of the sexual master with your mate. You turn on and off frequently, depending on the reaction you get from your partner. You are afraid to fall in love with the wrong person, but you will do anything for the mate who satisfies your needs.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) You are intelligent and discriminating. You tend to follow your heart when it comes to emotional matters. Your honesty and independence can be unnerving. You need to be mentally intrigued before you will take part in sexual pleasures with a prospective mate. You tend to be shy and will wait to be approached rather than be the pursuant. However, as soon as a potential lover enters your sphere, your aggressive, passionate need to live out your fantasies will surface and the partner willing to abide by your rules will capture your heart.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) You are a sentimental, affectionate sensation-seeker, and a grand master when it comes to emotional manipulation. You are extremely intuitive in the bedroom, instinctively knowing how to please. You are attracted to dramatic, spontaneous lovers who can match your sexual needs. You are extremely unique and highly creative when it comes to erotic experiences and can easily take any lover to new heights. You become automatically in synch with the person you crave, responding to his or her needs telepathically. The lover who returns the favor will hold your interest.
