

Meet Keke Palmer

Keke Palmer stars as True in the Nickelodeon series "True Jackson, VP." Keke was asked to join the Disney Channel concert "Kids' Inaugural: We Are the Future." This concert was hosted by first lady Michelle Obama and was performed to honor military families. Keke has starred in several movies, including "Akeelah and the Bee," "The Longshots," and TV movies "The Wool Cap" and "Jump In!" She sang two songs for "Jump In!" She also has made her own CD. She has appeared in several commercials. Keke, 15, was born in Harvey, Ill. She began singing in her church choir when she was 5. from The Mini Page © 2009 Universal Press Syndic

Gus Goodsport's Report Supersport: Myron Rolle

Birthdate: 10-30-86 Height: 6-2 Weight: 218 Hometown: Galloway, N.J. Football fans might see Florida State safety Myron Rolle playing in the NFL one day. But not next season.

Rolle, who embodies the "student-athlete" phrase, earned a degree in exercise science in 21/2 years at FSU. While succeeding in football and making second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference safety this year, he did as much or more off the field. Rolle received a creative research award for studying stem cells and also did research in a campus chemistry l

Newspaper Skills When you read a newspaper, you get more than just the information in the article. Newspaper readers learn to:

• skim headlines to pick out the stories they want to read. • tell the difference between fiction and non-fiction. Fiction is made-up. It is a story with a beginning, a build-up of details and a conclusion. It includes characters, a plot, a setting, conflicts and a resolution, or point where the conflicts are solved.

Non-fiction is true. Newspapers are non-fiction. Their articles have facts that have been checked. Stories in the paper usually start with the most important facts about the subject and end with the least important information.

• improve language and punctuation skills. Newspaper articles use nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, articles and prepositions. The more you read these words, the better you get at recognizing and using them.

Newspapers usually use con

Knowing the answers to these questions will help you to become a better newspaper reader. They'll make the paper more interesting for you to read.

A newspaper quiz-a-roo stores, foods and

A. display ads C. big ads

services are called:

One of his long-range goals is to open a medical clinic in the Bahamas, his family's native land. Somewhere in between, Rolle also is likely to do some more hard hitting in the NFL.

punctuation and spelling. This gives the reader practice in writing well.

where the story is continued is called a: C. jump line A. go-to line B. follow-me line D. what's-next line tells the page, section and column

3. A line at the bottom of a story that

1. The line above

the article that

tells who wrote

the story is the:

A. author

B. byline

C. writer

comic strip

D. copyright

2. The words that characters say are usually in a circle or

box. It is called a:

A. saying

B. balloon

C. quote

D. talkie

B. store ads D. picture ads

Anewers: 1. B, 2. B, 3. C, 4. D, 5. C, 6. A.

For Every Part of You

You can find something in the newspaper for every part of your life: school, play, sports, food, entertainment, friends, family, pets and more. Look through your paper to find subjects that interest you and note the page number. We've given you some ideas below.

Health: Look in your newspaper for an article about health. It might be about a new treatment for a disease or about good eating or exercise habits.

I found it on page

Travel: Some newspapers have a travel section, usually in the Sunday paper. Find a place you'd like to visit and learn more about it.

I found it on page ____.

someone you'd like to meet. I found it on page ____.

a du

People: Newspapers

often feature stories

people. Find one about

about interesting

Sports: The sports section is full of stories and statistics about different kinds of teams. Find out how your team is doing this season.

I found it on page _

Comics: Many newspaper readers turn to the comics page first to start their day with a laugh. Which comic is your favorite?

I found it on page ____

Reading the newspaper helps you learn in a more well-rounded, or complete, way. You discover new things about your community and the world. Newspaper readers may get a more detailed view of the news than they get from other sources.

A newspaper reporter interviews citizens at a protest.

Government watchdogs

The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution reads:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging (reducing) the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances." The founding fathers believed that citizens should be able to express their ideas or opinions, either out loud or in writing, without worrying about being punished. Newspapers have been called "watchdogs" of our government and its leaders. This means that members of the press have a responsibility to report about what our government is doing. The writers of the Constitution wanted citizens to be informed about the decisions and actions their leaders were taking.

The Mini Page thanks Sherrye Garrett, Ed. D., Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, for help with this issue.

words are hidden backward or diagonally, and some letters are used twice. See if you can find: NEWSPAPER, SPORTS, RECIPE, ADS, WEATHER, COMICS, SKIM, PAGE, FICTION, SKILL, BYLINE, JUMP, CLASSIFIED, READ, MASTHEAD, HEALTH, TRAVEL, PEOPLE, WATCHDOG, FIRST, AMENDMENT, FUN NSFEPICEREHTAEW THE NEWSPAPER Е ΤF IKMGHBYLINEA STARTS MY DAY! WRI NRAMENDMEN TT

Mini Spy and Basset Brown like to catch up on the news every day. See if you can find: • man in the moon • ice cream cone

Betty Debnam - Founding Editor and Editor at Large Lisa Tarry - Managing Editor Lucy Lien - Associate Editor Wendy Daley - Artist Please include all of the appropriate registered trademark symbols and copyright lines in any publication of The Mini Page®.

The Mini Page Staff